

Dillon Consulting Limited Scholarship

Description

The Dillon Consulting Limited Scholarship is awarded for the overall best submission from a graduate student.

Amount

$5,000.00

Eligibility

To qualify for this scholarship, the applicant must be:

- A CIP student member in good standing for the current academic year. MCIP and provisional members who have returned to school are not eligible for the scholarship.
- A student enrolled full-time in a planning program during the term of the award of the scholarship.
- Students in graduate levels of university study (Master's or PhD) are eligible.
- The project will either be proposed or in progress at the time of application with a target completion date within the current school year.
- The scholarship will not be awarded for any projects already completed.

Criteria

The submission will be judged on the basis of its potential contribution to the planning profession (in theory or practice), or its potential service to a community or community group. In their deliberations, the jury will consider the following documents:

- A 500-word biography from the applicant outlining their studies, as well as their personal interests.
- A current resume demonstrating the applicant's past and present commitments to their community.
- A completed application form.
- A one-page description of the project submitted for consideration.

Jury

The jury will verify that the eligibility criteria have been met. Their decision is final.

Deadline

The submission deadline date can be found on the CIP website.

About Dillon Consulting Limited

Dillon Consulting Limited is funding an annual scholarship program targeted to professional or industry associations with an on-going scholarship program to support graduate students. At present, Dillon has selected a number of organizations to each receive funding for $5,000 annual scholarships, including CIP. The selected organizations represent significant business areas for Dillon, as well as key professional groups for staff. Dillon also gives priority to organizations with national and/or international scope and to reputable, longstanding organizations. The scholarship program is consistent with Dillon's commitment to continuing education and professional development.
