

Healthy Communities Committee

Terms of Reference

Approved: 02/12/2017

1. AUTHORITY

The Healthy Communities Committee is an ad hoc committee of the Canadian Institute of Planners. As such, it is mandated by and accountable to the CIP Board of Directors.

Please refer to the CIP Committee Manual for detailed information on policies and procedures.

2. MANDATE

The Healthy Communities Committee (HCC) mandate is to promote the planning and development of healthy communities across Canada. Within the context of planning practice, a healthy community is one where a strong positive relationship is established between human health and the built and natural environments, including, but not limited to transportation, infrastructure, social planning, community design, and the development of sustainable communities.

The goal of the committee will be to:

- Work in partnership with Canada's health professions and other representative organizations to promote the planning and development of healthy communities;
- Support the planning profession in the development of national programs and initiatives, and address any issues of importance to the planning profession, as related to the planning and development of healthy communities;
- Monitor, assess, and support federal and international goals related to healthy communities, including the New Urban Agenda;
- Educate the planning profession on health issues, including health risk factors, and the integral relationships between health and planning;
- Identify opportunities to enhance the activities planned for CIP's centenary (2019), in collaboration with the Centenary Committee;
- Coordinate and communicate activities on healthy communities that may be related to the work of other CIP committees and PTIAs;
- Provide on-going knowledge and information transfer to the membership;
- Ensure activities are well coordinated with CIP's PTIAs;
- Form task groups to help address issues including, but not limited to, the built environment, aging communities, sustainable communities, research, toolkits, awards, etc.;
- Advise Board of potential opportunities for CIP representatives to engage in relevant roundtables or committees of other organizations;

- Provide advice and input on MOUs, program materials, information, and briefings that help advance the planning and development of healthy communities in Canada;
- Provide advice and input on all grant applications related to healthy communities that may involve the Canadian Institute of Planners in any capacity; and,

Contribute to an enhanced profile for CIP, Canadian planners, and Canadian planning practice on matters related to healthy communities.

3. APPOINTMENT

Members of the committee will be appointed in accordance with the CIP committee policies, as approved by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Institute's bylaws.

4. COMPOSITION

The Chair of the committee shall be appointed by the CIP Board.

A CIP Board of Directors liaison shall be appointed to the committee as a non-voting member.

If required and approved, a CIP staff member will be appointed in an ex-officio (non-voting) capacity.

A representative from the Fellows, the academic community, and a student, will be sought where possible.

Committees will strive to include members of diverse backgrounds and actively seek applicants from under-represented groups.

Membership shall consist of eight to ten members in good standing, who represent a cross section of the profession and membership. Membership composition will strive to represent Canada's geography and diversity.

5. TERMS

Unless otherwise stated, the term of office for all committee members shall be two years, which may be renewed for a further two years, contingent upon satisfactory completion of a first term.

6. ACTIVITIES AND WORK PLAN

Reflective of the committee mandate letter, the committee will develop and carry out an annual work plan and budget, subject to its approval by the CIP Board of Directors. Work of the committee may only commence upon approval of the Board. Generally, work plans and budgets will be developed in September-November, for the following year.

The Board may from time to time assign the committee with additional, specific undertakings.

7. MEETINGS

The committee shall meet at least four times a year. A meeting can mean an email where specific decisions are agreed upon, teleconference, or in-person (where budgets allow). Additional meetings will be scheduled as required.

Each meeting shall have an agenda, prepared by the Chair or their designate, distributed five days in advance of the meeting.

Each meeting will include a review and declaration of any real or perceived conflicts of interest.

Annually, the committee will review its mandate and terms of reference.

A record of actions and decisions will be recorded by a committee designate. This will be maintained in the committee SharePoint folder.

8. SUBCOMMITTEES

The Chair may appoint subcommittees when necessary for the committee to effectively conduct its business. If external members of the subcommittee are required, the recruitment and selection process will be in accordance with the CIP committee policies.

9. GUESTS, ADVISORS, AND OBSERVERS

Committees may invite guests, advisors, and observers to their committees, who participate at the discretion of the committee.

10. QUORUM

A majority of the committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the committee.

11. VOTING

Each voting committee member shall have one vote at all committee meetings, and all questions shall be decided by a simple majority of votes cast.

12. LEVEL OF COMMITMENT

Generally, each committee member will be required to:

- Prepare for and attend meetings
- Report to the Chair
- Follow-up on assigned items within deadlines
- Where appropriate and desirable, lead a subsidiary working group or subcommittee
- Use the CIP intranet (SharePoint) to collaborate on committee related initiatives
- Participate in training for use of technology when applicable (web conferencing, SharePoint etc.)

Committees will be required to develop their own agenda and document action items.

The minimum level of effort/expectation is an average of 8 – 12 hours/month. Requirements for the Chair of the committee may be greater.

13. FINANCIAL AND HUMAN RESOURCES

The budget and staffing requirements of the committee will be developed by the Chair of the committee, in consultation with CIP staff, and subject to approval by the Board.

14. REPORTING

The committee will regularly provide reports to the Board of Directors, including details of their meetings and work plan progress, including their activities, issues, action items, knowledge and information transfer deliverables, and accomplishments. At minimum, committees will provide quarterly status reports, as well as the annual report summary, to the Executive Director to include in the Board meeting package. These documents will be kept in the committee SharePoint folder.

Recommendations for significant changes in direction or policy will require Board approval for implementation.
